Scene 1 - The location is set on the moon with Earth being visible in the background, as soon as the game begins a clicking sound effect can be heard from the alien on the left as well as a background song will start which is a traditional theme from the predator movies; the alien on the left begins by speaking the Yautja Language which is from the Predator Movie, it is not meant for the Player to understand this, but rather make the player curious of the origin of these 2 aliens.

Scene 2

Scene 2 - The second scene explains to the Players how the game is played, which is basically by choosing the correct CEO of a specific Company that will be named, to make it easier 3 possible answers will be provided.

Scene 3

Scene 3 - The third scene provides a text box for Player 1 to provide his name (a nickname can be chosen), this will be how player 1 will be identified at the top left of the screen.

Scene 4

Scene 4 - After player 1 provides a name it will be stored top left corner of the screen, then the alien on the right will ask if there will be a player 2 playing, a text box will be provided for yes and no answers.

Scene 5

Scene 5 - If the user types in Yes then the alien on the right will ask for Player 2's name then store it in the top right corner and tell player 2 that he will play when play 1 finishes all 10 questions

Scene 6

Scene 6 - If the user types in No then the game will automatically start asking the player the 10 CEO questions.

(These scene repeats for all the 10 questions but never identical, always different questions)

Scene 7

Scene 7 - If the user types the correct answer the score on the top left corner will change to +1 and the player will get be awarded with thoughtful words by the alien.

(These scene repeats for all the 10 questions but never identical, always different words)

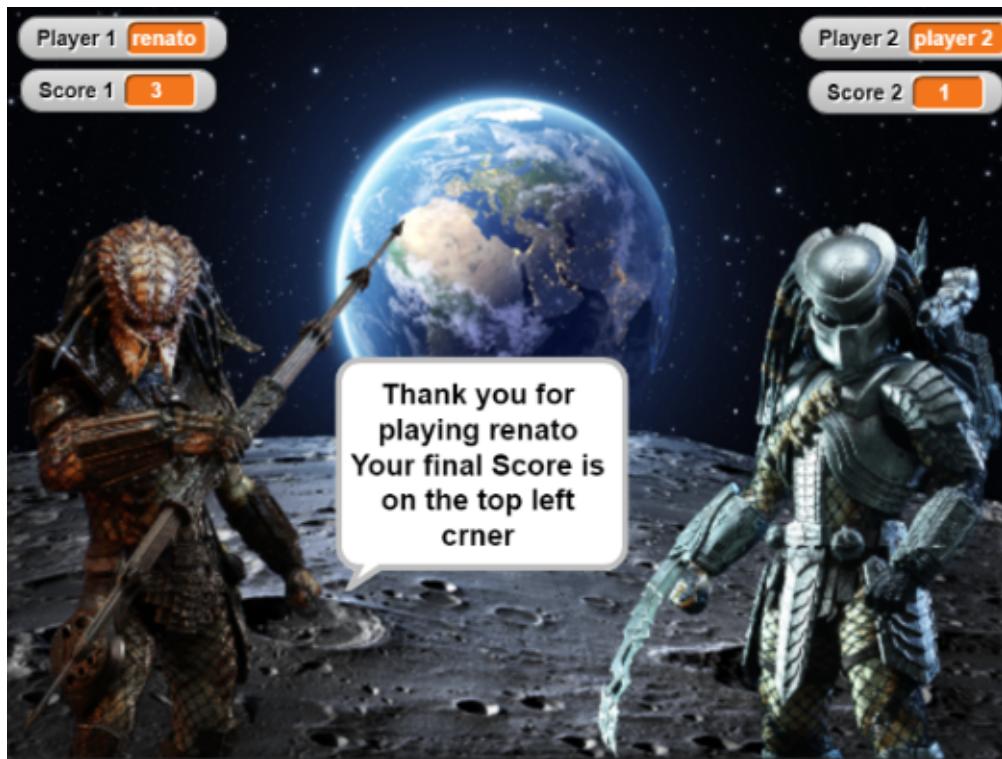

Scene 8

Scene 8 - If the user types the incorrect answer the score on the top left corner will change to +0 and the player will get negative thoughts by the alien.

(These scene repeats for all the 10 questions but never identical, always different words)

Scene 8

Scene 8 - Once player 1 completes all the 10 questions he will be told that his final score is on the top left of the screen, then the game will ask if player 2 is ready to play.
